Extended Biography

In the vibrant heart of Amsterdam's Ecstatic Dance community, DJ Henners has carved out a unique niche in the world of conscious dance, creating transformative experiences that transport dancers on euphoric journeys through sound. Known for seamlessly blending diverse genres to craft immersive soundscapes, Henners draws inspiration from African rhythms, earthy beats, and global music traditions to invite dancers on profound journeys of self-discovery and expression.

With over three years as a seasoned facilitator in Amsterdam's thriving ecstatic dance scene, Henners has guided countless dancers through soul-stirring experiences. Rooted in his time aboard the iconic 'Odessa' venue in Amsterdam, he has mastered the art of creating spaces where joy, introspection, and connection flourish naturally. Whether you find yourself rooted in the earth or soaring through the cosmos, Henners' music invites you to move freely and awaken your spirit.

Beyond the decks, Henners is a passionate advocate for the power of dance as a tool for community building and personal healing. His commitment to conscious dance extends beyond the dance floor, often collaborating with local artists and wellness practitioners to promote holistic well-being. Each set is carefully crafted to support dancers in experiencing the full spectrum of emotions that one encounters on life's journey - from ecstatic celebration to deep introspection.

With each musical journey, Henners inspires a deeper connection to the self, others, and the universal pulse of life, making every dance a sacred celebration of existence. His global reach extends from Amsterdam's premier venues to international retreats and festivals, bringing his unique approach to conscious dance communities worldwide.
