Short, medium, and long versions

Short bio

Henners is an Amsterdam-based ecstatic dance facilitator and DJ weaving global rhythms into soul-stirring dance journeys where joy, introspection, and connection can flourish.

Medium bio

Shaped by Amsterdam's vibrant ecstatic dance scene and rooted in his time aboard the Odessa ship, Henners creates spaces where dancers can move freely, awaken the spirit, and travel through the full spectrum of emotion: earth, rhythm, joy, introspection, connection, release, and stillness.

Long bio

Henners is an Amsterdam-based ecstatic dance facilitator and DJ from the city's vibrant conscious dance scene. For more than four years, he has guided dancers through soul-stirring journeys on ecstatic dance floors, ceremonies, festivals, retreats, and community gatherings.

Rooted in his time aboard the Odessa ship, Henners weaves global rhythms, African-inspired grooves, melody, silence, and spacious integration into rooms where joy, introspection, and connection can flourish. Whether the floor feels rooted in the earth or soaring through the cosmos, the invitation is the same: move freely, awaken the spirit, and dance the full spectrum of emotions that life brings.

Rather than forcing a fixed set, Henners listens into the room. His music can invite people to bounce, shake, soften, release, reflect, play, and return to stillness — following the energy of the floor while holding the arc with care.
